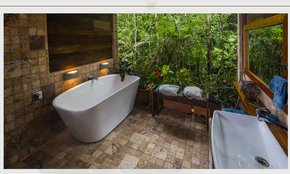
DAY 1:
The first day very early in the morning, at 2:00am, our private transportation will pick you up at your hotel in Quito to travel towards the entrance bridge to the Cuyabeno Reserve. This trip takes approximately 8 hours and a strategic stop will be made so you can have breakfast; with the private transfer you will arrive at the bridge in time to start the tour with us.

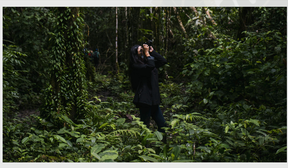
The reception will be at 11:30 am and we will have a delicious box lunch. Subsequently, our naturalist guide will provide information about the Reserve and important recommendations to begin navigating two hours in the Cuyabeno river towards Jamu Lodge.



During the canoe ride you will get a first glimpse of the rainforest and different kind of birds such as caciques, orioles and the prehistoric bird Hoatzin; also, we can see a variety of monkeys and other animals typical of the forest in terms of time and weather conditions.

We will arrive at Jamu Lodge around 2:30 pm, and at that time the staff will be in charge of welcoming and showing the rooms to our passengers so you can relax.

After resting a little and recovering energy, we will leave the lodge for a moment and go to the Laguna Grande, where we can witness a beautiful sunset, we will return to the Lodge to enjoy dinner, so we would end our first day in the jungle, relaxing in a hammock or having a drink at the bar.



DAY 2:
We start the day with a rich breakfast and then a walk for approximately 3 to 4 hours through the primary forest, the guide will explain about a tropical forest, and medicinal plants; in addition, during this activity we can observe large trees such asceibo or small insects such as ants.

After this adventure we will return to the lodge to enjoy lunch. We'll have a moment to rest, and, in the afternoon, we will go to see the beautiful butterflies and swim in the lagoon, if we are lucky, we will have the opportunity to see the beautiful pink dolphins and we'll enjoy the amazing fall sun.

We return to the lodge for dinner and then we will do a night activity focused on the search for alligators on the banks of the river.

DAY 3:
After breakfast, we leave in a canoe downstream in a journey of approximately one hour to visit a family of the Tarapuy community where we will be involved in the preparation of a traditional cassava bread known in the area as Casabe. In addition, during the process we can learn to use the materials and utensils of the jungle to make bread, in this activity we will occupy the whole day, returning to the Lodge at approximately two in the afternoon.

After enjoying lunch, we can relax and rest; to end the day we will have a short walk through the primary forest focused on observing nocturnal insects, such as spiders, gekos or scorpions, and listening to the sounds of the night.

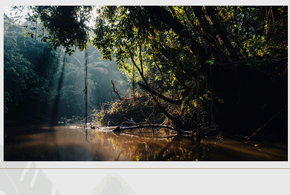
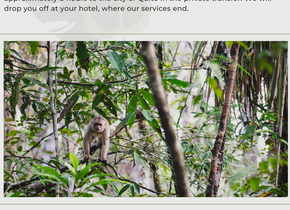
DAY 4:
If the program you chose is 4d / 3n, on this fourth and last day of the tour, early in the morning before breakfast, we will have a bird watching excursion that is optional and will depend a lot on weather conditions; upon returning to the lodge, we will have a rich breakfast and then the transfer back to Cuyabeno Reserve Bridge.

Our driver will be waiting for you on the bridge to begin the return trip of approximately 8 hours to the city of Quito in the private transfer. We will drop you off at your hotel, where our services end.

If you decided to stay with us for 5d / 4n then you will know how activities continue for your fourth day at Jamu Lodge.

On this day we will make a visit to the surroundings for bird watching for what we will transport in a native canoe, called "quilla"; we will also have another walk in the forest to continue marveling at the beauty of nature in this place.
For these activities we will have to paddle, thus having a better opportunity to observe more of the fauna and flora, we can see a great variety of different birds and monkeys; In addition, we will get a better idea of what a flooded forest looks like.
Because this activity lasts approximately 4-5 hours, we will take a box lunch with us to feed ourselves while we are living this experience.



DAY 5:
On this last day of the tour, we will have an optional bird watching expedition early in the morning before breakfast, which will depend much on the weather. When we return to the lodge, we will have a hearty breakfast before making our way back to Cuyabeno Reserve Bridge.


Our driver will be waiting for you on the bridge to begin the return trip of approximately 8 hours to the city of Quito in the private transfer. We will drop you off at your hotel, where our services end.
